

Dallington School

A progressive school in the heart of London

For children aged 3-11

MESSAGE FROM OUR HEAD, JAMES GRIFFITHS

I believe childhood is the most precious period in a person's life. It is our earliest experiences that help shape healthy and successful futures and this is why it is critical for schools to get education right. At Dallington we understand how fundamental this is. Our school is a habitat for creativity and wonder, where children are deeply engaged through a play-based, explorative and personalised approach to learning. We provide a holistic, child-centered educational experience and prioritise building strong relationships with both children and parents.

These key ingredients enable our children's potential to be unlocked, ensuring they flourish at school and beyond both academically and emotionally as happy, confident individuals. Dallington is a school with children at its heart in the very heart of London and I feel privileged to be the Head of this vibrant school community.

NURSERY & RECEPTION AT DALLINGTON

Our vibrant Nursery is led by Eileen Fletcher (MA Early Years Ed.), a highly qualified and experienced teacher, supported by Sue Kennard (NVQ3). Both are long-standing Dallington staff and parents themselves.

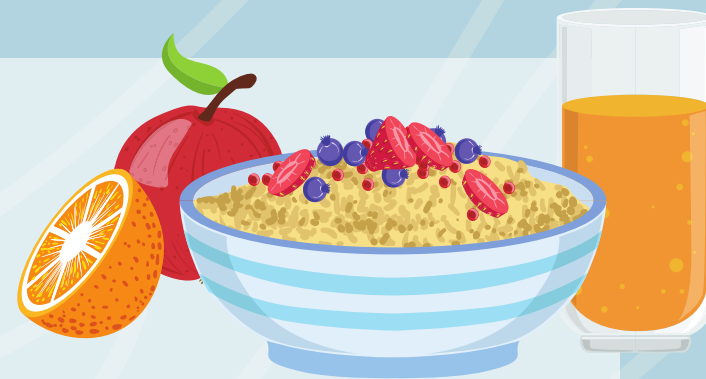

Rooted in the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) curriculum, our child-led, play-based environment nurtures independence, curiosity and confidence. Children learn through hands-on, cross-curricular topics in a safe, stimulating setting, building strong foundations for a seamless transition into the creative, discovery-based learning of Key Stage 1 and beyond. Part-time places are available.

WHAT OUR FAMILIES SAY ABOUT US

Dallington is an outstanding school and we are extremely grateful for all our time with you. Particular strengths – a clear purpose, outstanding teachers and staff – all at the top of their game and reassuringly experienced (sense of "seen it all before"), the feeling that the staff operate as a team, everything feels proactive and well organised, the sense of community, flexibility, and of course the mountains of additional support flexed to help my child – the impact has been clear.

DALLINGTON PARENT

Looking back, it was probably the best three years of my childhood. I flourished, grew in confidence, became part of a tightly knit band of friends. I took entry exams for five of the top secondary schools in London and was offered a place at every one.
